INTRODUCTORY

In issuing the 1940 edition of "The Times of India Directory" the Publishers again take the opportunity of thanking Government Departments, Commercial Firms, Public Institutions and the many hundreds of private and professional individuals for so readily furnishing them with particulars asked for. Without this co-operation, the work can hardly be as up-to-date or comprehensive as it has been possible to make it, nor as reliable as we hope users of the Directory will find it to be.

REWA KANTHA AGENCY—INCLUDING THE SURGANA STATE AND THE DANGS.

This Agency is a subordinate Political Agency of the Gujarat States Agency. It is comprised of all the non-salute States and Estates of the old Rewa Kantha Agency, the State of Surgana, previously in the Nasik Agency and the petty States known as the Dangs, previously in the Surat Agency.

Rewa Kantha means the district or province situated on the banks of the river Rewa or Narmada or Narbuda. This river is held in high veneration among the Hindus especially in the Bombay Presidency.

All the States comprised in the Province of Rewa Kantha are not on the banks of Narbada, for some of the Northern States, i.e., Kadana, and the States in Pandu Mewas are on the banks of the Mahi river. In fact the Rewa Kantha Agency comprises territories watered both by the Rewa and Mahi Rivers.

The population consists of the following main classes: Hindus, Jains, Musalmans, 'nimistic (Bhils, Dhankas, Kolis and Naikdas).

Surgana is situated on the borders of the Nasik District.

The Dangs consist of a tract of country between the Sahyadris and the Surat District which is parcelled out among 14 petty Chiefs. Of these 13 are Bhils and one a Kokani.

The Headquarters of the Agency which is situated at Baroda in view of the fact that the Secretary to the Resident for Baroda and the Gujarat States is also ex-officio Political Agent of this Agency, consist of:—

Political Agent:—Capt. F. C. L. Chauney.

Deputy Political Agent:—Kumar Shri Baneshinji J. Jhala.

Deputy Political Agent for the Dangs:—E. O. Sampson, M.B.E.

Many of the States and Estates are small and only a few enjoy restricted jurisdictional powers. The four Chiefs of Kadana, Bhaderwa, Surgana and Jambughoda are however larger and more important, the first three named being included in the list of electorates for representative members of the Chamber of Princes.

BREACH CANDY SWIMMING BATH TRUST.

Warden Road, Bombay.

Nearly sixty years ago the Europeans of Bombay in public meeting voted that the balance at credit of the Bombay Steam Fund be vested in Trust with the Bombay Municipality for the provision and maintenance of Swimming Baths for the benefit of the European public of Bombay. A piece of the foreshore at Warden Road, Mahaluxmi, was secured by Deed of Gift from the Secretary of State for India and the original Bath erected thereon in 1876. The Bath was reconstructed in 1927 and the grounds beautifully laid out. The present Swimming Bath is very much larger than the former Bath and in addition there is an open air pool fitted with high diving stages, water-chute, etc. The gardens form a pretty playground for the European children.

The Bath and Outside Pool can be reserved after dinner from 9-30 p.m. to 11-30 p.m. for parties on application to the Honorary Secretary, three clear days before the day on which the Bath is required. (Telephone No. 41081).

GOLWALLA BROTHERS VICTORIA SWIMMING BATH.
(COSMOPOLITAN)

Back Bay, Fort, Bombay.

Telegrams : " Golbath."

Tel. 27122.

As far back as 1896 the late Messrs. Dady & Framroze C. Golwalla first conceived of a scheme for a Swimming Bath and opened in the fresh water tank in the compound of Chanda Ramji Press at Colaba.

Appreciating the vital need of a cosmopolitan institution on the same lines, however, the late Golwalla Bros. acquired a site on Back Bay Shore and on March 21st, 1900, Sir Lawrence Jenkins, the then Chief Justice, laid the foundation stone of what is known, as the Golwalla Bros'. Victoria Swimming Bath, where more than 70,000 people, of all castes and creeds have benefited from the tuitions of Golwallas.

In addition to other aquatic activities Messrs. Golwalla Bros. introduced Water Polo in Bombay in 1903, the first seen in India, and the Parsis established a supremacy which has remained unshaken apart from visits of Calcutta Teams and a very narrow defeat by a European side in 1929.

Bombay had the honour of staging the first Quadrangular Water Polo Tournament in India and as a result of the consistently fine record of the Parsi Team of Messrs. Golwalla Bros., have won the championship for five years in succession.

Furthermore, in 1938, Golwalla Bros. introduced the Central Heating System, the first of its kind in India in their Swimming Bath. The public of Bombay felt it a great boon to swim in the cold season.

The Bath has also a most up-to-date Rowing and Boating Club for the benefit of all its members.

The Bath is open to all communities of both sexes and special personal instruction in Swimming, Diving, Life Saving, Water Polo, Rowing, etc., is given by a Staff of well qualified teachers.

The Bath can be reserved by individual parties and suitable convenient hours are arranged by the Proprietors.

UNIVERSITY OF BOMBAY.

Incorporated under Act XXII of 1857 (subsequently amended by Act VIII of 1904 and by Act IV of 1928 with all its subsequent amendments).

The Senate meets ordinarily once a year, on the last Saturday in January and at other times when convened by the Vice-Chancellor. A meeting of the Senate can be convened on the requisition of any twenty of the Fellows to the Vice-Chancellor. Twenty members of the Senate form a quorum; and all questions are decided by a majority of the votes of the members present, the Chairman, when the numbers are equal, having a second or casting vote. There are five Faculties, viz., Arts, Science, Technology, Law and Medicine. A member of the Senate may be assigned, on the recommendation of the Syndicate, to one or more Faculties. Each Faculty elects its own Dean. The Annual Convocation for conferring degrees is held on the third Tuesday in August.

The Executive Government of the University is vested in a Syndicate consisting of the Vice-Chancellor as Chairman, the Director of Public Instruction and sixteen Fellows, who are elected for three years by the Academic Council and the Senate in the proportion of 7 : 9.

BOYS' HIGH SCHOOL.

Panchgani.

The School was founded in 1902 by the Colonial and Continental Church Society, partly through the munificence of Miss Ashlin of Poona. It is situated in its own delightful grounds of over 22 acres overlooking the Kurali Valley. There is accommodation for about 85 boarders as well as the Principal, staff and matrons. The buildings include Assembly and Dining halls, Library, Laboratory, ample class and reading rooms. Both school house and residence have lofty and spacious rooms, while special efforts have been made to secure bright and airy dormitories. There is a large School Gymnasium adjoining the main building and a swimming bath supplied with pure well water.

The aim of the Principal is to provide a sound education on modern lines for the sons of Europeans. As far as conditions will allow the education is the same as that of the English Secondary School. The religious teaching is supervised by the Church of England Chaplain.

All boys are expected to take part in games and also to attend the physical instruction classes. There is a trained physical instructor on the staff, and classes are taken by him during school hours. Hockey, Association Football and Cricket are played daily by senior boys on the extensive level ground known as Tableland (a short distance from the school) and by junior boys on the school grounds. Instruction is also given in swimming and life-saving. The school is divided into two houses for games, and inter-house competitions are held in all sports. The Annual Athletic Sports are held in May. Tennis and Badminton are also available on the school grounds. Pupils are encouraged to join the Boy Scouts, whose activities are directed by experienced members of the staff.

ELPHINSTONE COLLEGE.

Mahatma Gandhi Road, Bombay.

The Elphinstone College arose by a separation in the year 1856 of the professorial element from the "Elphinstone Institution," which became a high school. The Elphinstone Institution had its origin in an English School established by the Bombay Native Education Society in 1824. This sum afterwards accumulated to Rs. 4,43,901, and the interest of it is augmented by an annual subscription from Government. Mr. Cowasji Jehangir Readymoney presented Government with Rs. 2,00,000 towards erecting suitable college buildings at Parel for Elphinstone College. Hope (afterwards Sir Theodore Hope), then Educational Inspector for the Northern Division, convened a public meeting of the leading citizens of Ahmedabad, for the purpose of establishing an Arts College, and invited them to raise a sum for it in order to induce Government to supplement it. In response to this call a sum of Rs. 42,600 was raised. By the end of 1860, with the accumulation of interest and further donations, the sum rose to more than Rs. 72,500 and Government in that year opened a class in the Government High School for teaching Law, Logic, Applied Mathematics and Drawing. This class was called "The Gujarat Provincial College." The cost of the College was Rs. 430 per mensem only, half of which was defrayed by Government. There were only three or four professors including the Head-Master of the High School, who acted as Principal of the new College. The College was not affiliated to the University of Bombay which came into being in 1857. Undergraduates, therefore, had to go to Bombay to read for their degree examinations. This was the main cause of paucity of numbers in the new College. At the end of the first decade (1861-1871) Government and the Gujarat College Fund Committee, finding that the small Class which had existed for this period did not answer the purpose for which the fund was raised, closed the institution from 1872. The funds were allowed to accumulate until a favourable opportunity presented itself to carry out the original object of establishing an Arts College. Government discontinued their share of contributions during the time the fund remained unspent.

In 1878 when Sir Richard Temple was Governor, Government announced that a College on a moderate scale could be started at an annual cost of Rs. 16,000, provided the citizens of Ahmedabad could contribute half this sum annually. The Municipality of Ahmedabad promised to contribute Rs. 3,000 per annum to make up the deficiency until the Endowment Fund was raised to Rs. 2,00,000. The College was re-opened in March 1879, and was affiliated to the University of Bombay up to the "First Arts Examination" which corresponded to the present Intermediate Arts Standard. The number of students which had risen to 39 in March 1880, dwindled to 7 only in November 1882, because the College did not teach the full University Course, and students found it more profitable to go to Bombay for their full undergraduate course. Leading citizens of Ahmedabad submitted a Memorial to the Educational Commission appointed by the Government of India which visited the city in November 1882. In the meanwhile the funds of the College through the energy of its citizens were raised to Rs. 2,00,000. Government accordingly undertook the management of the College from 1884, appointed a Staff for that purpose and held the College classes in a separate building. In that year the University of Bombay recognised the College up to the B.A. Examination. In 1887 Government handed over the institution to the Society for the Promotion of Higher Education in Gujarat. The administration of the College was assigned to a Board composed of Government Officials and representatives of the Society and the Municipality.

In 1898 the College was given 30 acres of land on its present site on the Ellis Bridge area. The cost of the new buildings was Rs. 1,92,327 of which Rs. 85,097 was contributed by Government. On the 16th of July 1912, the Society for the Promotion of Higher Education in Gujarat having dissolved itself the College was finally handed back to Government.

To assist Government to assume full and effective control of the College Sir Chinubhai Madhavai, Baronet, C.I.E., gave the munificent donation of two lakhs of Rupees for the Arts College, and six lakhs for the Science Institution in the College. The Madhavai Ranchhodlal Science Institute was inaugurated in 1912 by H. E. Lord Sydenham (then Sir George Clarke). Sir Chinubhai also donated Rs. 1,50,000 for the provision of a Library, which was named after Lord Sydenham as "The Sydenham Library" and a college hall designated "King George V Hall" to commemorate the visit of Their Majesties to India in 1911.

SIR ELLY KADOORIE SCHOOL.

Mazagaon, Bombay.

The Sir Elly Kadoorie School, formerly the Israelite School, was first opened on a small scale in 1875 for the education of Bene-Israel children. The school was subsequently enlarged in 1881, mainly through the efforts of the late Mr. Haem Samuel Kehimkar, who worked for the school for over 25 years as Hon. President, Secretary, and Treasurer. In 1898 the present spacious grounds of the School with a building were purchased for Rs. 80,000 collected from Government, the Anglo-Jewish Association, London, and generous members of the public from Europe and India.

In the year 1908 the school passed from the hands of the late Mr. Haem Samuel Kehimkar into those of a Managing Committee. In 1928 Sir Elly Kadoorie, K.B.E., Com. Leg. Hon. of Shanghai, donated a sum of over £10,000 for the extension and remodelling of the building which amount supplemented by local donations, enabled the committee to house the school in the present commodious building. In appreciation of Sir Elly Kadoorie's princely gift the school is called after him since 1st April 1932.

The principal object of this school is to impart religious and secular instruction to Bene-Israel students. The school is now being taken advantage of by Hindu students of the locality. The school imparts both Primary and Secondary education, preparing students for the Matriculation Examination of the University of Bombay.

The "Gate of Mercy" Synagogue, the oldest synagogue in Bombay, has been helping the school in various ways since 1912.

With a view to enable the children of poor parents to prosecute their studies in the school the late Mr. Herman Landau, O.B.E., a philanthropic gentleman of London, donated in the year 1919 a sum of Rs. 10,000. The interest on this sum is utilised in giving scholarships. The school also makes arrangements for providing books and clothing and one free meal a day to the children of poor Jewish parents. The expenses on this account are partly met from the interest on Rs. 5,000 received from Sir Victor Sassoon through Lady Reading.

The first few meetings of the Society were held in the Victoria and Albert Museum, at Byculla, but in 1884 Mr. H. M. Phipson, who had then joined the Society, offered the use of a room in his Office in the Fort, which resulted in a greatly increased membership and better attendance at the Meetings. To this room, which was situated in 18, Forbes Street, Mr. Phipson added the use of others, which continued to serve as the headquarters of the Society until December 1885, when the present more suitable premises at 6, Apollo Street, were obtained. In January 1886, the Society issued the first number of its now well-known Journal.

The Society possesses a valuable reference library containing over 1,000 volumes and good reference collections of birds, snakes, lizards, small mammals, insects, marine and land shells, fishes, birds, eggs and a herbarium. It also owns a fine collection of horns, heads and skulls of the larger Indian Mammalia. The collections are practically limited to the Oriental Region.

In 1921 the Society was entrusted with the management of the Natural History Section of the Prince of Wales Museum, and a great part of the Society's collections, trophies and natural history specimens, other than the reference ones, have been transferred to that Museum. These Exhibits are under the management of a Sub-Committee of three Trustees, two are appointed by the Society and the third by the Board of Trustees of the Prince of Wales Museum.

The Society's reference collections continue to be maintained for the benefit of members and accredited students at the Society's rooms in Apollo Street.

The Society for several years conducted a survey of the Mammal Fauna of India and Burma. Over a lakh of Rupees was spent on this work and over 20,000 specimens have been examined and classified at the British Museum. This work has enabled the Secretary of State to authorize the publication of a new and completely revised edition of the volume on Mammals in the Fauna of British India Series.

The Annual subscription is Rs. 25, which includes the Society's Journal. The Society numbers 1,200 members but many more are desired.

The Journal is published three times a year and contains articles on different Natural History subjects as well as descriptions of new species, and local lists of different orders. In the more recent numbers, serial articles on Game Birds, Familiar Flowering Trees and general articles on Sport and Big Game Shooting have been appearing.

In 1928 the Society was registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1860. Under the Articles of Association the control and management of the Society was vested in an Executive Committee comprised of ten members of the Society resident in or within 200 miles of Bombay, which is assisted in an advisory capacity by an Advisory Committee composed of ten members residing outside the area.

UNITED LODGE OF THEOSOPHISTS.

51, Mahatma Gandhi Road, Fort, Bombay.

The policy of this Lodge is independent devotion to the cause of Theosophy, without professing attachment to any Theosophical organization.

AMERICAN MARATHI MISSION.

Byculla, Bombay.

(Under the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, Boston, Maas, U.S.A.)

The American Marathi Mission is the oldest American Mission in the Bombay Presidency. Its constituency is the Congregational Churches of the United States and Canada. Its pioneer missionaries were at first threatened with deportation since the policy of the East India Company at that time, 1813, did not allow them to work in India, but in the same year Christian Missions to India were legalised by Act of Parliament and the founders of the American Marathi Mission were then allowed to carry on their work. At the close of 1938 there were 33 missionaries, 9 stations and 160 out-stations. There were 66 churches with 6,728 communicants. The total Christian community, including catechumen and children, was 13,591. There were 108 Sunday Schools with 4,112 pupils. Common Schools have a large number of pupils, and the total under instruction is 4,771 of whom 2,828 are non-Christians. Grants in aid from Government and Local Bodies totalled Rs. 37,537 during the year. Dispensaries and Hospitals treated 66,329 patients.

The work in Bombay has seven centres.—

1. The High School on Victoria Gardens Road, Byculla.
2. The Nagpada Neighbourhood House, New Nagpada Road, Byculla: Social Service
3. Hume Memorial Church, New Nagpada Road, Byculla: Services in the vernacular, Marathi.
4. Pastoral care of poor working Indian Christians living in Matunga and other outlying sections.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN BIBLE SOCIETY (BOMBAY AUXILIARY).

Amar Building, Sir Pherozeshah Mehta Road, Bombay.

This Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society was founded in 1813, under the auspices of the Governor of Bombay, Sir Evan Nepean, who was a Vice-President of the Society in London. Its one aim and object is to circulate the Holy Scriptures, without note or comment, throughout Western India. Its first Honorary Secretary was the Rev. Thos. Carr, D.D., who became the first Bishop of Bombay. The stocks of Scriptures in English, French, Dutch, Portuguese, etc., were stored in the Vestry of St. Thomas' Cathedral for many years and the monthly meetings of Committee were held there regularly. Soon after the Auxiliary was founded, the translation of the Bible into Marathi and Gujarati, the two chief languages of Western India, was begun. The translation of the Gujarati Bible was completed in 1823, while the first Marathi Bible was published in 1847. During more than 120 years of work in Bombay Presidency, seven million copies of the Holy Scriptures have been circulated, chiefly by sale, at rates very much lower than cost price. Besides the translation, revision, publication and ordinary means of dissemination of the Bible, large grants of money are made to Missionary Societies in order to assist Scripture distribution throughout Western India. Missionary Societies and Churches of all Protestant denominations depend solely on the Bible Society for vernacular Scriptures, which are essential to them in their various departments of service. Large numbers of English Bibles and New Testaments are also presented gratis every year to Graduates and Matriculates of Bombay University.

Since the greater proportion of the Society's expenses must be borne by voluntary contributions it is dependent upon the support of all Christian people for help to carry on its beneficent work.

RAMAKRISHNA MISSION ASHRAM.

Khar, Bombay 21.

Phone No. 88042.

The Ramakrishna Mission, founded in the year 1897 by Swami Vivekananda, is a Neo-Hindu religious movement, which has as its primary object the promotion of inter-communal amity, inter-racial concord and international fellowship. Ramakrishna, the master of the great Swami, was the embodiment of the harmony of religions. In this age of clash and conflict of cultures, when the sharpness of difference between creed and creed is being keenly felt, the Mission has been emphasising the unity of religions. Service of humanity is the service of God—is the motto of the Mission. The Mission has more than a hundred Centres all over India, Burma, Ceylon and Federated Malay States. There are ten Vedanta Societies in the prominent cities of the United States of America, one in Buenos Ayres, one in London and one in Geneva. The Bombay Branch of the Mission, started in 1923, at Khar, has been conducting religious lectures and classes both in the City of Bombay and in the suburbs. It runs an outdoor charitable dispensary and free reading room and library on non-sectarian principles.

The Ashram opened a Guest House and a Students' Home in 1933. The Students Home is open to all bona fide College students of Bombay. The object of the Home is to supplement the University Education with cultural discipline and religious knowledge. The Home has at present accommodation for 15 boys. The Ashram is even ready to take up relief operations whenever and wherever there is call of suffering humanity.

THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY.

BLAVATSKY LODGE, Bombay.

THE THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY was formed in New York by Mme. H. P. Blavatsky and Col. H. S. Olcott on 17th November 1875 and incorporated in Madras on 3rd April 1905 (having its Headquarters at Adyar, Madras). Col. H. S. Olcott was the first President, and on his death in 1907, Dr. Annie Besant was elected President by four septennial elections. She held the office till her death in September 1933, and was succeeded by the present President, Dr. George S. Arundale, M.A., LL.B., F.R. Hist.S., D.Litt. During its 63 years' existence the Society has spread its branches all over the world. It has 47 National Sections containing 1,345 Lodges. Its membership is about 33,300 of which 4,378 belong to the Indian Section (having its Headquarters at Benares).

The Theosophical Society is a non-sectarian body of seekers after Truth, striving to serve humanity on spiritual lines, and therefore endeavouring to check materialism and revive religious tendencies. Its three declared objects are :—(1) To form a nucleus of the Universal Brotherhood of Humanity, without distinction of race, creed, sex, caste or colour. (2) To encourage the study of comparative religion, philosophy and science. (3) To investigate the unexplained laws of nature and the powers latent in man.

The Society is composed of students, belonging to any religion in the world or to none, who are united by their approval of the above objects, by their wish to remove religious antagonisms and to draw together men of goodwill, irrespective of their religious opinions, and by their desire to study religious truths and share the results of their studies with others. Their bond of union is not the profession of a common belief, but a common search and aspiration for Truth. They hold that Truth should be sought by study, by reflection, by purity of life, by devotion to high ideals, and regard Truth as a prize to be striven for, not as a dogma to be imposed by authority. They consider that belief should be the result of individual study, or of intuition, and not its antecedent, and should rest on knowledge, not on assertion. They extend tolerance to all, even to the intolerant, not as a privilege, but as a duty, and they seek to remove ignorance, not to punish it. They see every religion as an expression of the Divine wisdom and prefer its study to its condemnation, and its practice to proselytism. Peace is their watchword, as Truth is their aim.

The Blavatsky Lodge, French Bridge, Chowpatty, Bombay, which was founded on 23rd April 1879, and obtained its charter on 20th February 1880, was registered on 9th July 1906. It is the first branch of the Society to be established in India and has its own spacious building, a good library and a book-depot. N. V. Tampi, A.B., G.T.D., is its President and R. D. Aria, B.Sc., is its Hon. Secretary. The Lodge has about 200 members. There are seven other branches of the Society in Bombay and Suburbs.

CHURCHES OF ENGLAND.

ST. THOMAS' CATHEDRAL

The first scheme for building a Church on the Island of Bombay originated in 1675, the English Services then being conducted in a Hall in the Castle. Money was collected, but though the Church was commenced, it never got higher than fifteen feet. In 1715 Chaplain Cobbe appealed to have this stigma removed, and on Christmas Day, 1718, the Church was opened with great rejoicings. In 1814 Bombay had been made an Archdeaconry of Calcutta and on 7th January 1816 the Church was consecrated with all due solemnity by the Right Rev. Thomas Fanshaw Middleton, D.D. In 1837 Bombay was created a Bishopric, and in 1838, on the arrival of Dr. Carr, the first Bishop, it was notified to be the Cathedral Church of the See, under the dedication of St. Thomas the Apostle. The present pinnacled tower was erected consisting of a lantern standing upon a square tower at its base, the whole rising 146 feet from ground level and containing a clock with three small quarter bells each suitably inscribed. There are two Silver Chalices of particular interest, one being the gift of Governor Gerald Aungier, whilst the other's history is bound up in mystery and is inscribed "The gift of the Greenland merchants of the Cities of York, 1632." In 1867-68 the present beautiful chancel and organ chamber were constructed, the first-stone being laid by Sir Bartle Frere.

The Lady Chapel has a splendid reredos given as a thank offering, and the screen surrounding the Chapel is in memory of Captain Mathias who gave his life for his country during the great war.

CITY FEVER (INFECTIOUS DISEASES) HOSPITALS.

Arthur Road, Jacob Circle, Bombay.

These Hospitals, which are equipped and maintained by the Bombay Municipal Corporation were opened at Arthur Road on the outbreak of an epidemic of small-pox in 1892. Previous to this in the year 1888, the Bombay Municipality started a hospital at Grant Road called the Grant Road Infectious Diseases Hospital. This hospital was generally opened during the epidemics of small-pox and cholera and was closed during the rest of the year. The hospital worked for four, six, one and seven months during the years 1888, 1889, 1890 and 1891 respectively. It was permanently closed on the 26th July, 1892, and the patients, furniture, etc., were transferred to Arthur Road. This hospital was made ready for the admission of patients on 12th March 1892, and had been called The Arthur Road Hospital for Infectious Diseases. But when the small-pox section was entirely separated from the General section the name was given as "City Fever Hospitals." In the beginning, patients suffering from cholera and small-pox were chiefly admitted and treated, but now patients suffering from all infectious diseases are treated here. During the first outbreak of plague, patients suffering from that disease were also treated at this Hospital, and, from 1896 to 1901, 6,382 plague patients were treated. Since 1901 the admission of plague patients into this Hospital was discontinued, and a separate hospital known as Maratha Hospital was started for such cases in 1902. But from 1930, the Maratha Hospital is exclusively maintained for advanced tuberculosis and road side cases, and the admission of plague cases in the City Fever Hospitals has been resumed.

All present the hospitals are divided into two units, one for small-pox and the other for all other infectious diseases except Tuberculosis.

Its work lies amongst destitute children hailing from all parts of India, juvenile offenders less than 16 years of age and children offended against by adult persons. The extent of its activities can be estimated from the fact that in the first ten years of its existence over 8,000 remand cases had passed through the Umarkhadi Home, and that in 1930 a Junior Reformatory School for boys less than 12 years of age was opened in the Umarkhadi compound.

DADAR SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

(Formerly known as American Mission School for the Blind)

Dadar, Bombay.

The School for the Blind was established in 1900 by the late Miss Anna Millard and was under the management of the American Marathi Mission until 1st April 1939, when it was taken over by the Society for the Protection of Children in Western India. The School was opened during famine times, when both the young and adult blind were admitted. It has gradually developed into a strictly educational institution. At present, only girls and boys up to the age of 18, irrespective of any caste, creed, colour or religion are admitted. The aim of the School is to make the blind children self-supporting, self respecting and contributive members of the society and to help them take their rightful position along with their seeing compeers. The ordinary school subjects are taught in English and Marathi from Kindergarten through High School. School-life activities, such as Scouting, Cubbing, Girlguiding, Literary, Music, Excursion and other clubs are an essential part of the education of the children. Great importance is given to physical education.

It is primarily a residential school but day-scholars are also admitted.

A special department, probably the only one of its kind in India, namely a Department of the Deaf-Blind-Mute, was started in January 1938. The triply-handicapped child is taught to speak through tactual and oral method, to hear through bone-conduction and to read and write with Braille.

The Music Department is affiliated to the Indian School of Music.

Cane-work is the principal industry and the product is on sale for the benefit of the department. Other industries taught are sisal-hemp work and beadchain making.

Apart from the Government Educational and Technical grants-in-aid, the School is dependent upon the public for support. The building, for which the land and a generous building grant were given by the Government, is located on a healthy and spacious plot on Dadar Road, a few minutes walk from Parel Tram Terminus. Visitors are very welcome to see the children at work from 11 A.M. to 4-30 P.M. on week-days and from 8 to 11 A.M. on Saturdays. But the pupils are always busy, and even out of school hours visitors will find interesting activities going on.

The Labour Union which was a constituent of the Red Trade Union Congress, merged into the G. I. P. In April 1938 the two rival central organizations, namely, the All India Trade Union Congress and the Indian Trades Union Federation, decided to unite and work together by arriving at a mutual understanding. This unity at the centre was followed on the G. I. P. and the G. I. P. Railway Workers' Union and the New G. I. P. Railway Staff Union came to some understanding whereby the G. I. P. Railway Workers' Union ceased functioning. Since 1st August, 1938, all the sections were again combined under the flag of the New G. I. P.
